BUSHPILOTS COURSE JUNE 2004

June saw another SKYAFRICA Bushpilots course being held in the Waterberg. Weather was great and we added a few new destinations and airfields to make things more interesting. Also quite unique was the composition of pilots taking part.

MARY SWINGING THE ROP

The lowest time Pilot on the course arrived with 63 PPL flying hours in contrast to the highest time pilot who had logged 22 000 hours as an ATPL flying everything from Chipmunks to B-747.

FUELFOR THE AFRICAN BUSH

The nationalities present made for good and sometimes heated conversations around the campfire

American, German, English, Dutch, Scottish, Austrian, Rhodesian, South African accents were heard and many a good song was sung whilst some good drink was drunk.

SHORT FIELD PRACTISE

It is always interesting to see the interaction between Pilots coming from various countries and to realize that we all share the same interests and feel the common bond that exists between flyers worldwide.

Flying went off safely without a hitch.

Technically we had no snags - bar one collapsed nose oleo which was field-repaired bush-pilot style.

The weather behaved as it should do at this time of the year.

The SKYAFRICA FLIGHT TRAINING crew, under the able leadership of Paul and Barbs and instructors Glen, Allister and Dr. Mark, did a really professional job and kept up the sometimes hectic pace of flying sorties.

Thanks again to the Kunkuru Team of ground instructors and rangers, John, Jan and Jean, for keeping the runway clear at all times and showing us the African bush during on the ground courses.

And many thanks to Theresa for successfully practising her anti-anorexic dietary skills on us.

PILOT SAFARIS:

Due to late cancellations we are able to offer special reduced fares!!!!!!!!!!!!

We still have aircraft available for our luxury African Dream Safari in September a real great trip into the heart of Africa. Botswana, Zambia, Malawi and Mozambique are on the menu Bush, great game viewing the Zambezi river Lake Malawi and the coral reefs of the Indian Ocean

Call us on this one!!!

PILOT SCENIC GETAWAYS - For the flying enthusiast

During October, November and December we will also do some shorter, fast paced fly-aways into Southern Africa.

PILOT SCENIC GETAWAYS explore Africa.

These are not typical leisure Flying Safaris; we spend less time on the ground more in the air. We will be flying to exotic places, see the bush, the African fauna, village life but the emphasis is on exploring Africa from the air.

Below Budget Prices are in South African Rand ZAR (Aircraft dry rate, no airport or other fees, licence validation excluded) and are subject to change please enquire.

Exchange rates are approx 1$=ZAR6.5, 1 Euro=7.5ZAR, 1 Lbs=11.5 ZAR
